Award Category

Excellent HR Manager

This award will be presented to an Excellent HR Manager who, in the past 12 months, has made a clear and measurable impact on the organisation as part of the HR Team or as the sole HR professional.

Nominees should be able to evidence impact by providing measurable and quantifiable results. This is likely to have been achieved through a programme of development, implementation and integration of policies and practices which clearly support organisational objectives and which have made a significant impact on the organisation's success.

Judges will be looking for evidence of:

- The individual's contribution to the leadership & development of the HR team or the workforce as a whole
- Impact on organisational objectives and organisational culture
- Commercial awareness
