

The cHeRries Awards 2020

Entry Form

Businesses may enter more than one category. An entry form must be submitted for each category entered. Please note that word limits apply.

Award Category

Tremendous Learning and Development

This award will be presented to either an individual or team who in the last 12 months have demonstrated a strong commitment to designing and delivering innovative and cohesive learning and development programmes for their organisations. This may be for a one-off project or for transformational sustainable learning and development within the organisation.

Nominees should be able to demonstrate that there was measurable improvement between the business' training and development and the performance of organisation, teams and/or individuals.

Judges will be looking for evidence of:

- Innovative learning and development progress or implementation of learning from best practice with evidence of costs and value for money/ return on investment.
- A strong relationship between the outcomes of such programmes and the organisation's strategic aims and objectives
- A direct link to and from Performance Management processes.
- How the programme(s) will be undertaken going forward or otherwise be sustainable
